Statement of objects and reasons.

The Mysore Inventions and Designs Act, III of 1925 was based on the Indian Patents and Designs Act, II of 1911. The Indian Patents and Designs Act, II of 1911 has been since amended in 1920, 1923, 1927 and 1930 to suit the changed conditions of the industrial development of the country. It is necessary to bring the Mysore Act into line with the British Indian Act. According to British Indian Act, the term of a Patent which was 14 years prior to 1930 has since been extended to 16 years. As a result, the renewal fees have been enhanced and the schedule of fees has been suitably amended. It is desirable to adopt the same scale of fees in Mysore also. Section 78A of the Indian Patents and Designs Act of 1911, as amended by Act VII of 1930, admits of reciprocal arrangements being made with Indian States and recognises the rights of the legal representatives and assignees of the British Indian applicants to claim priority. Section 75 of the Mysore Act relating to reciprocal arrangements has to be similarly amended.

The amendments proposed are with a view to bring the Mysore Act into conformity with the British Indian Act.
